

O Lord, You Have Always Been Our Home

Introit for Thirteenth Sunday of Trinity

Text paraphrased from Psalm 90

Jeremy Rawson

Gently ♩ = 94

Soprano mp
O Lord, you have al-ways been our home, Be -

Alto mp
O Lord, you have al-ways been our home, Be -

Tenor mp
O Lord, you have al-ways been our home, Be -

Bass (optional) mp
O Lord

Organ/Piano mp

fore you cre - a - ted the hills Or brought the world in - to be-ing, You

fore you cre - a - ted the hills Or brought the world in - to be-ing, You

fore you cre - a - ted the hills Or brought the world in - to be-ing, You

you have al - ways

were e - ter - nal - ly God And will be God for e - ver.
 were e - ter - nal - ly God And will be God for e - ver.
 were e - ter - nal - ly God And will be God for e - ver.
 been our home for e - ver.

A thou - sand years to you are like one day
 A thou - sand years to you are like one day
 A thou - sand years to you are like one day
 Lord, may

They are like yes - ter - day, al-read - y gone, Like a short hour in the night.

They are like yes - ter - day, al-read - y gone, Like a short hour in the night.

They are like yes - ter - day, al-read - y gone, Like a short hour in the night.

your bless - ings be

f Lord, may your bles - sings be with us Give us suc - cess in all we do!

f Lord, may your bles - sings be with us Give us suc - cess in all we do!

f Lord, may your bles - sings be with us Give us suc - cess in all we do!

f in all we do!