

The People Who Walked in Darkness

Introit for the Third Sunday of Epiphany

Text paraphrased from Isaiah 9

Jeremy Rawson

Slowly  $\text{♩} = 72$

Soprano p The peo - ple who walked in Alto p The peo - ple who walked

Tenor p The peo - ple who walked

Bass (optional) p The peo - ple who walked

Organ/
Piano p

Soprano f dark - ness Have seen a great light. p They lived

Alto f Have seen a great light. p They lived

Tenor f Have seen a great light. mp They lived in

Bass (optional) f Have seen a great light. p They lived

Organ/
Piano f p

in sha - dows The light is shin - ing on them. mf

in sha - dows The light is shin - ing on them. mf

8 sha - dows But now The light is shin - ing on them. mf

in sha - dows The light is shin - ing on them. mf

Lively ♩ = 110

f You have giv-en them great joy, Lord, You have made them hap-py, hap-py,

f You have giv - en them great joy, You have made them hap-py, hap-py,

f 8 You have giv-en them great joy, Lord, You have made them

f You have giv - en them great joy, Lord, You have

You have giv - en great joy! You have giv - en them great joy, Lord, You have You have giv - en them great joy! You have giv - en them great joy, hap - py, them hap - py! You have giv - en them great joy, Lord, — made — them — hap - py! You have giv - en them great made them hap-py, hap-py, You have giv - en them — great joy!

 You have made them hap-py, hap-py, You have giv - en them great — joy!
 You have made them hap - py, You have giv - en them joy!
 joy, Lord, You have made them hap - py, Giv - en them joy!